SATURDAY, JULY 28, 1860.

HON. E. B. WASHBURNE.

This faithful and able representative of the people was re-nominated for Congress by the 1st District Convention, at Rockford, on Thursday—receiving a majority of all the votes cast on the second ballot.

AFTER HARVEST.

We understand that measures have been taken to secure the presence and services of a number of the most distinguished speakers in the United States, in Illinois, after the harvest is off the hands of the people. Appointments will then be made for them as rapidly as is consistent with their other engagements. The farmers are now struggling with a beautiful crop. After that is secured, Northern Illinois will be shaken up to a majority for Lincoln, which will set and Republicans themselves.

PENNSYLVANIA.

"Secession" is the order of the day in Pennsylvania. A portion of the Douglas members of the Democratic State Executive Committee a short time since called a State Convention and mass meeting to be held at Harrisburg on the 26th inst., to nominate a new electoral ticket. Another portion of the Douglas faction of the same Committee, protested loudly against the movement, and denounced Hindman and Forney for their impudence in it. Nevertheless the Convention was held, the ticket nominated, and everything is now in dire confusion among the Douglas ranks. There are now three electoral tickets in the field—Lincoln Republican; 2. Breckinridge and Douglas Democratic; 3. Douglas Democratic pure and simple. In any one so blind as not to see the inevitable consequence of this apathy?

HON. I. N. ARNOLD.

After a struggle between him and his competitor which is without precedent, in this district, for long, and, we had almost said, bitterness, Mr. I. N. Arnold was nominated for Congress by the Republican Convention at Dixon, on Thursday last. The nomination was made in accordance with party usage, and expresses the will of the Republicans of the district, as it certainly does the will of the party in Cook county. We take it for granted that the bad blood which has been engendered in the preliminary canvass of the rival candidates will not be remembered by either party now that the struggle has come to an end; but that the Arnold men and Farnsworth men will engage in a new but friendly race to determine who will do the most for HONEST OLD ABE and the Republican ticket. The great interests that are staked on this campaign do not admit of lukewarmness on the part of any of the friends of Republican principles, and the party will not hold him guiltless who fumbles the success of a great cause by moping over a small disappointment in the choice of men.

THE MOBBING BUSINESS.

The Douglasites of Southern Illinois have taken revenge on the mobbing of their candidate for President at Macon, Ga., by mobbing Rev. J. J. Turner, at Olney, on the occasion of his making a Republican speech in that city a few days since. We learn these facts from Douglas papers. Mr. Turner is a resident of "Egypt," has for a long time been a clergyman of the Methodist Church in Wayne county, and lives now in the town of Lebanon, St. Clair county. He was assaulted while speaking at Olney, with a shower of eggs, one of which, says the Gazette, struck him squarely in the face. If anything exhibits the degradation of the Democracy in this State more than the sale of the Chicago Times to the Chicago Herald, it is this infernal outrage on the person of a peaceful and law-abiding clergyman. We assure the Outer Democrats that they are laying up for themselves wrath against the day of wrath!

Simultaneously with this news comes the report of an assault on a number of Republicans in Georgetown, Va., who were engaged in the peaceful business of raising a Lincoln banner. It is gratifying to know that the parties assaulted defended themselves manfully, and at last accounts stuck to their colors. It would seem that the time has come when the first principles stated in the Declaration of Independence, and the most sacred rights guaranteed to the American people in the Constitution of the United States, are again to be fought for and again to be lost or won.

A Correction.

We have received an angry and abusive letter from Hennepin, from a person signing himself "T. F. Gaylor," in relation to the sale of the Standard of that place to the Squatters. A reply to this would be useless, as the writer evidently is a Squatter himself. We have no sympathy with the Squatter movement, and have no sympathy with the men who are its advocates. We have no sympathy with the men who are trying to make a mockery of the sacred rights of the people to the public domain

Another portion of the Douglas faction of the same Committee protested loudly against the movement, and denounced Haldeman and Forney for their agency in it. Nevertheless the Convention was held, the ticket nominated, and resolutions in favor of Douglas and against the Administration adopted. The following resolution in the Douglas Democratic Platform speaks volumes:

> Resolved, That we, the representatives of the Democracy of Pennsylvania, in Convention assembled, do hereby declare our earnest desire and urgently request that Stephen A. Douglas shall be the nominee of the Democratic party for the Presidency, and we hereby express our will of the Republicans of the State of Pennsylvania, that the Democrats of Illinois, and therefore, we do hereby pledge our fidelity to filling the vacancy.
> Resolved, That the President of the Convention be, and he is hereby requested, to address a letter to Mr. Douglas, without delay, and that Mr. Haldeman be requested, at the first earliest convenience, to make a supplement to the party platform with reference thereto.

Their Visit to Boston and Salem.

(From the Boston Atlas and Bee of Wednesday.)

The announce ment, yesterday, that the Zouaves would visit Boston, gave an exhibition of their evolutions at the Boston Theatre, in the afternoon, drew a large house throughout the city. Accordingly to the theatre we betaken ourselves, and for the space of two hours we delighted many the morning, and the entire hour which "Old Hickory" spent. The ladies were present in hundreds of special parties, and many of the gentlemen were present in some numbers high, we believe, as $15. The drill of the Zouaves at the Boston theatre, Friday evening, was

> This proved fine. Nearly everybody was present, including the ladies, who appear to have taken wonderfully to the Zouaves and their movements.

THE THEATRE

Presented a fine sight. It was crowded in every part, the distant galleries, where seats were at all desirable, not excepted. The orchestra seats had hardly been witnessed in this famous temple. Among the audience we noticed the Governor, among the city government, Senator Wilson, Hon. Jas. Buffum, the entertainment in fancy gentlemen, clergymen and others. Nearly every seat was occupied, and every available standing position.

Wherever an eye could obtain a glance, or a hearing, it was so seen and heard.

Of course, the exercises were those of the regular drill and manual of the Zouave tactics.

[The description of the drill need not be repeated here.]

SPEECH OF MANAGER BARNUM.

At this period of the evening's entertainment Thomas Barnum, the manager of the theatre, came forward and addressed the audience. He said that certain members of the Second Battalion had to send him to address a large number of the Zouaves in the Boston Theatre. His feeble voice, he continued, could hardly be heard beyond 3,000 before him; certainly it could not reach the Zouaves who were in and been disappointed in witnessing one of the Democratic party, and that had ever taken place in the country. In view of the multitude who assembled in the Boston City Hall, he had concluded to repeat their exhibition in this spacious edifice, at 11 a. m.

This announcement is received with applause.

Mr. Barnum then introduced Colonel Ellsworth, the well-known commander of the Zouaves, who, he said, had only became forward and responded.

CAPT. ELLSWORTH'S REMARKS.

He said he really did not know what he had called him out for. He did not come to ask their votes, was not a candidate, and did not make a speech. His company had returned from Boston a late hour, without having sold the tickets had been sold, and the demand for the tickets was so great.

Political Discussion at the Wigwam.

Editors of the Press and Tribune:

Certain young men styling themselves a "Committee appointed by the Republican Club of Chicago," have made an engagement to hold political discussions in the Wigwam. These youth have persuaded the crafty squatter politicians to pull the wool over their eyes to a dubious extent. In the first place, they propose to open our Republican Wigwam to allow drivers and sundry pro slavery demagogues to use their vocabulary and advertise themselves in our building. Id, They have consented to discuss a series of questions that put the Republicans on the defensive—brings our lines under fire, and gives our adversaries a battle cry. The verdancy of this agreement will be seen by stating the propositions to be discussed, viz:

1st. Has Congress the power to prohibit slavery in the Territories? and if so, ought it to exercise such power?

2. Ought the Republican party to triumph in the approaching Presidential contest?

3. Ought the Republican party to be defeated in the Presidential Campaign on account of its principles and aim in reference to the question of slavery?

In this bright arrangement the Republican party is to be arraigned like a prisoner at the bar, and tried by these squatter prosecutors, in our Republican Wigwam!

The young men have shown themselves to be quite as adept at Buchanan diplomacy.

If the squatters are so anxious to have a political debate, why not hold it in their own building—North's Amphitheatre?—and let us have the fun of witnessing it before—the country, which may be stated in the following questions, viz:

1. Does the Constitution of the United States recognize property in man? (Republicans, Yes; Douglas Democrats, No.)

2. Has a slaveholder the Constitutional right to carry his slaves into a territory and hold them? (Republicans, No; Douglas Democrats, Yes; Squatter Sovereignty, Yes.)

These questions cover the topics the people are thinking about and discussing, and the people will be on the spot to hear them. Are Gen. McClernand, Judge Scates, Dr. Davis and Alf. Fordham ready to debate these propositions in North's Amphitheatre?

It may be proper to state that neither Joseph Knox, E. S. Williams or C. Date gave their consent to have the arrangements announced by the self-constituted Committee. A Republican.

☞ The State Democrat—the Breckinridge and Lane organ—published at Springfield, estimates the Squatter demonstration at 10,000 persons—men, women and children—and that the crowd were Republicans and Nationals, who came to see the fun. Two-thirds of the remainder were women and children, and a number of Douglas voters present, were estimated at 2,000 all told. The 10,000 estimate of the telegrapher was a bare-faced lie, and every one the wires to the associated press for purposes of deception.

HONEST INFORMATION FROM CONSTITUTIONAL DOUGLAS ABANDONED BY FORNEY, BUCHANAN & CO.—The only Democratic organ of Pennsylvania, led by Forney, Buchanan & Co., with Haldeman & Co., in the rear, has abandoned Douglas and Fernando Wood, and now proclaims that "Two-thirds of the remainder were women and children, and a number of Douglas voters present, were estimated at 2,000 all told. We assure the Cairo lynchers that they are laying up for themselves wrath against the day of wrath!

Simultaneously with this news comes the report of an assault on a member of Republican in Ocmogan, Va., very much resembling in the peaceful manner of making a Lincoln honor. It is gratifying to know that the parties assailed defended themselves manfully, and at last successes stuck to their colors. It would seem that the time has come when the first principles uttered in the Declaration of Independence, and the most sacred rights guaranteed to the American people in the Constitution of the United States are again to be fought for and again to be lost or won.

A Rebel Dog was killed in the West Division yesterday.

HELD TO BAIL.—The two burglars have been held to bail in $500 each.

FIRE'S PRANK.—The Badger State Stamping Mill will be in operation this afternoon, at Higgins, Mowry & Co.'s store, 205 Randolph street.

WATER-STEPPING.—One Joe Parish was fined $15 yesterday for so attempt at watch stuffing, and was sent to the county prison a week. This gives him thirty days on the stone heaps.

POWDER LICENSES.—A good M named John Handy was fined $25 yesterday, under the ordinance that requires all persons selling powder to take out a license, which costs the trifling sum of $1 per annum.

OPTICIANS IN MILWAUKEE.—The Journal learns that H. G. Obligen of this city contemplates establishing a first class Gymnasium in Milwaukee. This is in keeping. The Milwaukeans will be prepared forewarned by anything that pertains to Chicago.

THE CADETS.—Harper and Leslie's for this week contain pictures of the Cadets' movements in New York, the gaining position of the principal portions of the Young Republicans of the Empire State, and the Chicago Cadets.

McNally & Co., 81 Dearborn street.

METROPOLITAN GYMNASIUM.—At the usual recreation this evening, Messrs. Van Inwegen and Byers will again contend for the Champion Belt for one mile running. It will be remembered that they ran a fine race last Saturday, and each one is confident he can come in a little ahead of the time.

"A Journey through the Valley of Pearls and the Cities Beyond it," is the title of a little book just published by Messrs. Robert Clarke, of Cincinnati, and on sale at the bookstores of Church, Goodman & Kenny, 51 La Salle street. It is a little production of which to be the Rev. Henry H. Hammond, of this city.

ANOTHER PORTRAIT OF LINCOLN.—We had the pleasure yesterday of inspecting a crayon drawing of Abraham Lincoln by Mr. Thos. M. Johnston, a Boston Artist, which we consider a very faithful likeness. It is to be lithographed immediately, and will be published by C. B. Brainard of Boston.

INQUEST.—In addition to the inquest on the body of the child accidentally drowned as elsewhere noted, Coroner Jones held an inquest on the remains of a female child found on the bank of the river at the Rock Island R. R. dock, near Twelfth street bridge. Verdict premature bath.

TO DAY'S EXCURSION TO COLE SPRING GROVE.—The excursion to Cold Spring Grove this morning under the auspices of First Presbyterian Church, promises to be one of the most interesting of the season. Extensive preparations are making to entertain the hosts who are expected to be there. The cars will leave the Rock Island Railway station at 9 a. m., and return by the regular train, reaching Chicago about 6 p. m.

MASS SABBATH SCHOOL CONCERT.—At the request of many of our citizens, the Chicago Sabbath School Union have determined to repeat the Concert of Sabbath Schools in Music, on Tuesday evening, August 14th at the Wigwam.

Superintendents are requested to call previously at the Sabbath School book store, 51 Randolph street, and procure their redeemed tickets, which will specify time and place for rehearsal, which will be held before will not answer. It is hoped that every Superintendent will see that the school is represented on the first rehearsal.

REMEMBER THE WIDOW AND THE FATHERLESS.—We would call attention to the Benefit appointed to be given by the German citizens of Chicago, for the benefit of the family of the Hungarian exile, long a resident of the city, and called to his rest in an active and energetic worker in the Republican cause. He died some three or four weeks since, leaving a widow and two or three children, entirely destitute. The entertainment is to be given by the German Hall, on Monday evening, August 6, and will be a varied and interesting character, embracing extracts from the most striking scenes in Schiller's Macbeth, and to be followed by a concert—all by able performers. Let there be a full house, as the family are entirely destitute, and well deserving of aid.

DOCKET FOR THE REFORMER'S COURT.—The following cases will come up for trial before Judge Wilson at 9 o'clock, this morning. Includes only the names of parties now in jail:

Dugald McFarland, setting fire to 165 North Clark street, on Saturday, June 23, 1860. Complaint, Dr. Chas. Prull, do; John McFaland, do; Wm. Ryan, do; Wm. Ryan, do; Jas. The Home Field of Missions.

Among the cheering results of a period occurring two years or more since, which exerted a period of several months with its more marked efficacy, was the Great Revival, in the union and harmony of the several denominations of Christians in a common purpose of labor and endeavor, and a common concern doors. A new development and impulse has been given to the Missionary spirit, and while it does not appear that foreign fed do have been the less an object of regard, the cause of the Christian public have come to exertion more common than ever before, and the words "the field is the world" is implied in the world.

They give practical results of a better appreciation of the fact that brother of a well marked class are not necessarily cast in growths requiring a tropical background of bread fruit, palms and banana-trees, with a water glimpse of the Nile, Ganges or South Pacific. That it is not an indispensable accessory constituting the "brethren with a soul to be saved" that he must have a Chinese pigtail, and be dressed in brown Mine Tailit with a string of teeth or of scalps the "scalp-lock" of his battles; that he must be a "Bedouin or frocksmed rat, what time "missionary outlets" are not in market; that he bow down idolatrous to a deity huge and hideous in the form of a calf; that he be destitute of both intelligence and religion, and be short he be truth a small remove from calling the children of his father; and the gorilla his brethren after all.

Christian Church and Conference meeting, and here been have been heard only the literal "experiss ofren oracle" of lively and of gay tales, to "go to the heathen," involving a sea voyage and the sacrifice of the acquaint ion of a new and barbarous tongue, a hardy residence in the pain grown, a life expat riation from home, and a life long exile. The "scape goat sent into the wilderness" is realized and repeated again and again among Christian Christian in this country, in the plying a heavy responsibility and burden upon the shoulders of the fresh caught Theological students of his shrinking yet high-spirited and courageous partner, who, leaving all the antipodes, leaving a small margin of duty to the brethren and sisters who remain at home, to be compensated for the sacrifices, prayers and dimes at stated intervals ruined into the treasury.

We would draw the pen through sought that we believed would be construed as a detraction from the claim of foreign missions, or the well earned honors that are theirs who swell the corps of devoted missionaries abroad. The error is not in that field over the water, the mistake is in the idea that have gone forth, but in those that have remained at home, and the sanctities thick set with heathen of the worst possible stamp, with a teeming population that have joined with the Christian religion, and with moral obquity a power for evil that is not one of them a more dangerous agent of evil than the heathen. Let the blessed work go on for the equator, and renders sacity on American soil given up to their influences more powerful than the efforts of all the Churches and Churches exist, thus the entire of Polyneisia combined.

The Christian denominations are beginning to understand these things better, far better, and apply a common-sense principle of business, if we may use the term, to the calculation that it sound must be noted, that the results of our own teeming population can be more easily reached, and are prepared by intelligence, languages and Christian Religion, to be the pioneers those processes and impressions that are a sealed book to the savage dancing in his war paint, and the Christian Religion to the crocodile. Mission fields abroad are, as we have said, not being neglected, but new and rich fields are now opening for Christian labors. We have always like the hearty old pastor, who after alarming his devoted flock "of the dangers of the heathen, and the sin of not 'going to the heathen,'" concluded "3 more of sermon," he "did not intend to go out of town."

The pastor's sermon, the errand of the Missionary is to advance the interests of his field, to swell its numbers. The "Get at Awakening," with this new view of the home field, has made many hundreds of converts. In one city there are ten thousand children in our Sabbath Schools, the child one of our poor. There is among the children to be found a kind and class identical with the life errand of Martyn, or Scudder, and the work is being done by a corps consisting of the Christian Home Mission Schools so formed from time to time and often. The fire Sabbath in the new school gives a fair house, and the influence of the sweet songs of childhood, the earnestness of a hoary attached to a happy belonging to Chas. Hare, which took fright Thursday evening and came Sabbath. Thursday evening, the horse ran away. It was stopped on Market street without much damage to the vehicle, and no person injured.

He was annoyed while speaking at Cairo, with a shower of eggs, one of which, says the Gazette, struck him squarely in the face. If anything could more the loyal portion of the Democracy in this State more full than the sale of the Chicago Times to the Chicago Herald, it is the intense interest centering on the person of a peaceful and law-abiding clergyman. We assure the Cairo lynchers that they are laying up for themselves wrath against the day of wrath!

Simultaneously with this news comes the report of an assault on a number of R. publicans in Occoquan, Va., where they went to the general business of selling a Lincoln banner. It is gratifying to know that the parties assailed defended themselves manfully, and at last succeeded in stuck to their colors. It would seem that the time has come when the first principles uttered in the Declaration of Independence, and the most sacred rights guaranteed to the American people in the Constitution of the United States, are again to be fought for and again to be held dear.

A Cor ection.

We have received an angry and abusive letter from Hennepin, from a person signing himself "T. P. Crosby," in relation to the sale of the Standard of that place to the Squatters. A recent editorial paragraph on the subject, is alleged by the individual to have taken the "edition" of the sheet in question, injurious.

It appears from what we can gather from Mr. Grebe's disclaimer, that Mr. Crosby is publisher and editor of the Standard were different persons—that the former owned the concern, and the latter was merely employed to edit it, and had nothing to do with the sale of the sheet to the Squatters.

We regret that the owner was also an editor. Hence the error into which we fell. We recent having confounded the employee, who still claims to be a Republican, with the person who sold himself, as we were only aware of the fellow who is described in the Secretary of the Rep. Club's letter, as "one of those erratic "characters whose political shortcomings are at "times extremely problematical; as having no "settled, well defined principles, and by common consent, is as shifty! unreliable! and consequently not the man to conduct a Republican paper."

We presume this is all the explanation that is necessary in the case.

The Dixon Resolutions.

At the Congressional Convention at Dixon, Mr. Lansel, of Cook, by leave, offered the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Republican party of the First Congressional District, in Convention assembled, hereby reiterates its unalterable attachment to the principles of Liberty, of our Republican Union, and of our Constitution, as laid down in the Resolutions of the Chicago Convention of 1860, and in the Inaugural Address of President Lincoln, and that we recognize the Republican party of the State and Nation as the party to which we look for the maintenance of these principles, and for the preservation of the Union of the States, remaining in the Union, and under the Constitution, as it is, and as it was when it was made, and we regard all efforts in this Union to destroy our nation and what it stands for, as treason against the Republic, and we will, by our votes, and by our influence, do all in our power to suppress it.

Resolved, That we have full confidence in our patriotic President and Commander-in-Chief, and in his Cabinet, and we will give them our cordial support in the prosecution of the great work of Union and Liberty, which they have undertaken to perform.

Hofmann is the Galena District.

The Republican Convention of the First Congressional District met at Rockford, day before yesterday. The following resolution was unanimously passed:

Resolved, That the Hon. Lincoln A. Hofmann be requested to reconsider his resignation, and to allow his name to be used as Republican candidate for Lieut. Governor.

Attempt at Burglary.

[Corresponden e of The Press and Tribune.]

Dixon, Ill., July 27, 1860.

Our store was entered by burglars last night, between eleven and half past one o'clock. They were interrupted by our coming to the store accidentally, and left without being seen, having drilled a hole into the safe door to the depth of ½ inches. They left their tools, (bits, chisels, etc.,) which they took from a wagon shop in town, also half a pound of powder and a couple of edifices collected in the store.

A similar affair occurred in Tiskilwa, recently, when a safe was opened with powder, and two hundred dollars taken; two horses were stolen from that vicinity the same night. If these things continue, it stands one in hand to brush up their revolvers and keep their powder dry; also to deposit their money or speak it as fast as received, which we intend to do in future.

Yours truly,

Steele & Hubbard.

The New York Herald on the Crisis.

[From the Herald, July 20th.]

Howly Tremendous and Fearfulsome—Douglas Abandoned by Foreign Democracy—Lincoln Sure to Succeed—Importance of Democracy Expiring, led by Forney, Bigler & Co.—Its Death Rattle—Its Dying Struggles in their true colors, as will be seen by the lightly important act agreed to and adopted, as follows, discovered by John Hickman, in the Concert Hall, Philadelphia, on the evening of the 20th inst., in which he formally announces the abandonment of Douglas, and proposes to nobly for Lincoln.

Mr. Hickman declares Douglas is inferior to Breckinridge; he gives a scathing record of the Illinois Senator's career, and proposes that the only safety for the country lies in supporting Breckinridge.

"Nothing is for the better. It will narrow the contest to the only two parties involved in it, and will strip it of all the ambiguity and humbug with which it has been clouded. The ways predicted that the old Democrat Democracy would come to life, and that Forney, having received his office as Clerk of the House from the Republicans, would give them his support, [surely, if not openly; but Lincoln's is an honest, old fashioned, and he comes out in this speech frankly and above board for anti-slavery and the Republican candidate. By thus abandoning Douglas, and going boldly into the Republican ranks, the anti-Lecompton Democrats have put the stamp of their personal honesty of purpose on Lincoln. With them it is evident that Douglas is to be no longer recognized as a representative of other issues. Opposition to Breckinridge, as the Democratic party, and support of Lincoln and the Black Republican principles of anti-slavery, and of Douglas, must follow them, or be counted outside of the Democracy. Such is the question already.

Overtures Joint Stock Arrangements.—A joint stock electoral ticket between the Bell and Douglas parties in Illinois, has been proposed upon; but it does not appear to create much enthusiasm in the Bell ranks, or of the high contracting parties. Indeed, when we consider that the Bell Everett party is made up from the remains of the late American party, and that the Douglas party is a party broken with confidence to its very core, it does not appear that we must conclude that "all angels to mix the mingling of the two" will be very apt to do it. If Mr. Douglas has to run upon a ticket in Illinois, he will be put to take him off the track, and if Mr. Bell is so weak in Georgia as to need the aid of Douglas, it would be a wise thing on the part of Bell to withdraw. The Bell party, in Lebanon and Breckinridge, are all outside excepting the Douglas party in Georgia will come to the Bell ranks.

Mr. Douglas is no Scott.—It is very evident that things day by day tend more to the South divided to the interests of Mr. Douglas. We understand that Mr. Douglas is gaining at night from all sides. We dare say that the friends of the old Democracy, Bell, Breckinridge and some Republicans, will be with the Douglas party. The popular sentiment of the South were to assume a position of a sharp or decided character in defence of Southern institutions as to render impossible the Douglas third section supporter as a follower of Lincoln. Such is the fact, and it is a matter of serious importance to the South, something of the kind.

The best thing that Mr. Douglas and Mr. Lincoln can do, and that the friends of Mr. Bell and Mr. Everett can do, is that they, in Connecticut, have friends and Democrats, by a withdrawal from this Presidential canvass, so as remove all obstacles to the election of Mr. Lincoln and Breckinridge, the only two candidates for Electors who will be backed in the electoral vote of the Union.

"Fusion" in New Jersey.

[From the N. Y. Times, 20th.]

Three State Conventions—Democrat Trenton yesterday to form Electoral Ticket for Douglas—Republicans Trenton and Camden—Bell Ticket called by the Democratic State Committee.—The Douglas party held its convention at Trenton yesterday, 120 delegates and 120 supporters of Douglas; the Republicans had a convention at Trenton, 120 delegates of three Breckinridge men, three Bell men, and one Douglas man; and the Bell men held a convention at Camden, 120 of the three parties.

The Douglas party came to Trenton with a view to go for Bell, but, as it was, they voted to go for Bell, "if not, they are to vote as they please." Resolutions were adopted in favor of Lincoln. This Convention was very dull and very "fusing."

Next there was the Bell and Everett Convention, which, after the usual "fusing" and with the charge of Commercial Purposes was much good. Bell was unanimously nominated, and giving the State Committee power to fill vacancies.

Finally there was a straight Douglas Convention called by the State Committee of the Democratic National Committee, which was of the most enthusiastic and harmonious of the three. Here a full Douglas ticket was nominated, including the so-called Douglas man on the Fusion ticket. The vote for Douglas was 77 for war.

It will be easy to raise a howl against the straight Douglasites as proscriptive and injudicious, but it is true, they have a case. Mr. Douglas' prospect is so blue that it is almost black; and he is so far gone that it must be in his character of Regular Democratic leader, and to be the only and exclusive man of his adherents. The moment he slipped his leadership and gave the Democracy day dickering with odds and ends of fractions, he is virtually gone." Wherever parties are to be elected in the House, he plainly cannot be; and he will be lucky if he can get his own seat, the election into the House. Mr. Douglas' friends in Congress, must and will fight their battle squarely, for every trade means ruin.

And this makes the course of the straight Bell leaders at the South more inexplicable. They pretend to be dictating a ticket for Lincoln; but that cannot be. The Douglas men cannot, and will not vote for Lincoln; they must run a clean Douglas ticket, and they will. The straight Bell and Everett men and Brooks or some other of the brokers for Congress; but they can have no hope of an electoral ticket, save to act openly for Douglas. In other words, they may buy the Bell leaders, if they do not hold themselves too high; but they cannot give such tickets away.

The mistake of the wireworkers inheres in their forgetting that the people are honest and earnest. While Brooks and that sort only aim close to best Lincoln, no matter with whom, the rank and file mean to be honest, and have hardly a chance to do it. The Douglas men, the Breckinridge men, are likewise in earnest.

—In some cases, as high, we hear, as $10, for a single ticket. Only "a gentle phrase was a word of the Zouaves at the Boston theatre, Wednesday night.

This proved true. Nearly everybody was there. Hundreds of ladies, who appear to have taken wonderfully to the Zouaves and their movements.

Zouaves at the Theater.

Preceded a fine night. It was crowded in every part, the distant amphitheatre, where seats were at all desirable, excepted. Hundreds of people had hurrie before been dismissed in the famous temple, among the numerous were Republican and Democratic and the city government, Senator Wilson, Hon. Abbott Lawrence, the municipal military gentlemen generally, and every available standing point. Wherever an inch could obtain a place, it was occupied, and the house was crowded. "All classes of society were fully represented in every depth, and presented ample evidence of the interest felt in the Zouave movements.

Speech of Manager Barry.

At this period of the evening's entertainment, Thomas Barry, the Zouave Manager, and Captain Kilmore, came forward and addressed the audience. Mr. Barry expressed his thanks for the reception, Boston had received him to address the house, and gave a brief sketch of the Zouave Regiment. His feeble voice, he continued, would be heard by the large audience before him; certainly it could not reach double half the number of people he supposed in enlarging one of the most military days that had taken place in the country. In view of the mutilated thus characterized, Mr. Barry, the speaker, have concluded to repeat their exhibition in this city to morrow and Friday.

This announcement is received with applause.

Captain Kilmore was next enthusiastically called for. Captain Kilmore, the commander of the Zouaves, came forward and bowed forward and responded.

Capt. Ellsworth's remarks.

He said he really did not know what they had done to deserve this, he did not come to ask their votes; was not a politician, was not a public speaker. His company had returned from Salem a few days, where they had given all the tickets had been sold, and the demand was so great they had to stop.

He could hardly imagine how such an exhibition could be so enthusiastically received since to the company it was as every day and commonplace as ABC. He endeavored, however, to, they (the company) would most certainly do their duty. He was thankful for the tree one of unalloyed pleasure, and they should remember this day in their memories and collections. Capt. K. concluded by stating that they would be happy to repeat and their drill on the morrow.

Capt. Ellsworth then retired amid applause. Three cheers and a tiger were called for and given in the hearty manner.

The audience left the house full of rosy complexions and of the will to see the Zouaves. We fear that if they could have listened to the remarks made by some of the ladies they would have been in a melting mood.

The Chicago Zouaves at the Boston theatre will be a very, very, very,

PROGRESSIVE TICKET.

Another evidence of the sagacity of the retiring editor of the Times is his yesterday's "blow" about the certainty of the election of Douglas. He does well to keep up that strain long until his contract for the sale of his paper is consummated, and he has the money in his breeches pocket, else the purchaser might rue. Blow, ye trumpets, blow.

SAVE THE UNION.

The Union, which the Democrats call Southern Union, in the event of the election of Lincoln, may, if half that the Douglas men assert is true, be safely turned over to them. They swear that they are Union men in all possible or expressible contingencies, and that they are all powerful in the South. But this is only bribing the people with the lesser half of their own money to let him keep the larger half.

Is there not evidence that an enterprise for releasing Mattesson is actually on foot?

Last January, when the Douglas State Convention which appointed delegates to Charleston, was in session, the members of that Convention, very generally, attended a party at Matteson's house. He was not appointed a delegate to Charleston, but it was then and there in secret session, an outside disciple of Douglas, carrying the log—with perhaps the State's money in it. The bag, (misunderstood, was very convenient to many of the starveling hogs who went from this State to Charleston to nominate the Northern Democrat for President; and it would be very rash to conclude that Mattesson is not yet to be recompensed.

Again it has become the subject of very important or even trivial Douglas demonstration at Springfield, to make a visit to Sarip Villa and pay court to Mattesson. Of course the man who to do this either has the money or has made up their minds to the pretence of believing, that Mattesson is innocent, and ought to be released from paying back the State this money he stole from its possession, and by the possession of which he is unable to give any satisfactory or honest account.

But are the tax-payers of Illinois ready for this? Do they wish to be taxed for the support of those who have money, to let the latter half stay in those coffers where it all would have remained but for a political conspiracy? After having their money stolen, are they for restituting the man in whose possession it was found, and every subsequent movement of whom has been marked by the Democratic party, that is daily endeavor was, at least, so far as leaders understood and honor may, it is their first attached to him? If are not, they will not be blind to what is now going on before their own eyes. They will take cognizance of the efforts which Mattesson is now making to have the Governor of the Douglas Legislature, knowing that with his heavy liability to the State, he would make no such expenditures of money as he is making, if he had not the assurance of ultimate recompense.

We sound the alarm for the benefit of the tax-payers. Let them look out.

RECIPROCITY—MR. HATCH'S REFORM.

We are indebted to some unknown friend for a copy of the "Report of Hon. Israel T. Hatch upon the operation of the Revenue Laws and the Reciprocity Treaty upon the Northern Frontier," which we have carefully read. We have been influenced in the slightest degree by the Treaty of Reciprocity. On the contrary, without that Treaty all the facts cited by Mr. Hatch would be of a still more aggravating character in their effects upon our commercial relations with Canada. The differential duties of which so much is said in the report, imposed by Canada upon foreign goods passing through the United States, with the view of encouraging direct importation by her own merchants would be quite as severely felt as they now are, were there no such treaty in existence. So, also, the Grand Trunk Railway would make the same complaint, and for the same purpose of the carrying, trade of the great West, that now marks its management, were the recommendation of Mr. Hatch to disregards the Treaty of 1854 acted upon by Congress.

In fact the entire spirit of the report is in behalf of compulsory non-intercourse with Canada. It ignores the commercial and pecuniary interests of the Northwest and the Southwest, assuming that the policy of the Government ought to be made to conform to the local commercial necessities or advantage of a few New York towns. It is an effort to run a Chinese wall along our Northern boundary, to compel the products and the consumers of the country to pass through certain places and over certain routes of transportation. We are prepared to admit that New York is a very great State; that the Republican party is the Democratic party; that it is prescribe the policy of the Federal Government.

Kidnapping—A Correction.

Some days ago we gave an account of a case of kidnapping which occurred near Douglas, Union county, in which—having been misled by the kidnapper's advertisement—we erroneously stigmatized the party as a Black Republican. We are glad to publish the following note from the Democratic editor, and he is welcome to place his light, so far, at least, as he is concerned:

DOUGLAS, Union Co., Ill., July 24th, 1860.

EDITOR PRESS AND TRIBUNE:

Let me call your attention to an article in your paper of July 19th, headed "Kidnapping Case in Egypt." I have many old friends and acquaintances in other parts of the State, readers of your paper, who were sorry to hear that, that I had been guilty of attempting to kidnapping. I never engage in anything of the kind, or have to do with the Port Office here, and neither be nor any other Black Republican in this place is in sympathy. No doubt, you will make the necessary corrections.

The circumstances of the case were was a disgraceful affair, and I would write you a statement of the facts, only it was proposed to be done by an older hand, which you have probably received. The party is now at parole (free), and did not appear in the running away. He is now said to be in jail in Jackson, Mo.

Progress of the Slave Trade.

The Slave trade, since Buchanan's policy never more active than it has been within the last fifteen months. Vessel after vessel has been fitted out in American port—principally in New York—the ship of which could not be mistaken, but which were permitted to go unmolested upon their infernal errand. There seems to be a blind eye, and a deaf ear, for the suppression of this traffic, or a very culpable remissness in enforcing it. Probably some thing is to be attributed to this cause for the inefficiency which attends all pretended efforts to put a stop to it. A writer in the New York Evening Post says that Captain Gerry, after having been captured on a slaver and sent into New York, was released by the U. S. Commissioners for the reason that it appeared that he was deliberately sailed again for the Congo River, and was captured by a British vessel and sent to St. Helena, with 200 negroes on board. The Commissioners, he says, had no jurisdiction, and so New York, and she too was released for want of proof. It is now said that the bark Begota, which was captured off Cape Cod in the fall of May last, having five hundred negroes on board is none other than the Emily. The same writer adds, speaking of the Commissioners, that perhaps, reliable data, that during the last fifteen months thirty-one slavers have cleared from the port of New York alone, capable of carrying an average of from two hundred negroes each, or an aggregate of fifteen thousand five hundred. Commenting on these facts the Post remarks:

"The only excuse which Mr. President Buchanan can boast of having carried during his administration of this policy, is the protest against nullification of the restriction upon the slave trade. The Southern Democracy are relinquishing the protection of the Constitution, and, in a high sense, he has contributed to this result. The slave trade, while at home his officers and agents are of a piece with the Republican party, and have in a sense hostile to the chief of the Administration. Hence, with the Republican party, the slave trade is a matter of indifference, or sentiment, now boldly stigmatized as the foreign process of the political slave trading party in the world."

"Forty Thousand!"

The boast of the telegraph operator of Springfield that there were 40,000 persons at the Douglas Ratification Meeting in that city the other night, is a piece of, which the operator and his employers should be ashamed. The Journal says that an actual count of the vehicles and persons in the procession footed up as follows:

Number of wagons, buggies and carriages.....	350
Average number of persons to each vehicle (estimated)	3
Persons carried in all.....	1,050
Number of persons in procession.....	1,000
Total.....	2,050

We are indebted to the same authority for the full count of all the wagons would give a fraction over 2,000, containing about 2,500 men, women and children. Two regiments of men the people in the wagons: one figured up 3,000, and the other 2,500. Another gentleman, concerned only those who appeared to be voters, and he made it 1,500. BEARDSTOWN, ILL., July 24, 1860.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

To the constant readers of the PRESS AND TRIBUNE it would appear that almost every county in the State has demonstrated its Republican political character except Cass county, which has been neglected; but that omission is considered as exhibiting a disinterested feeling of our people—for there is no such feeling. There are people in the State more anxious to succeed than the Republicans of Cass county; and there is no ticket more adapted to their wishes than that of Lincoln and Yates. Personally the brief period of four years our progress has been good, and our relative increase very near equal to any other county in the State. Since 1856, nearly all the Fillmore men have come over to Lincoln, and since his nomination there has been a positive gain from the Democratic party, and very few for Lincoln in November will be greater than it was in 1858. In 1856, Cass county had no regular Republican political speakers, and there are now more than three active debaters, quite a number of well organized Republican clubs, one substantial Republican newspaper, (The Central Illinoisan,) and a strong probability of another in a few days. With all these essential elements at work, we expect to make a distinctive impression, next November. But the work is not yet complete, nor are we willing to let it rest as it is, notwithstanding the character of our gains. I know of no man in this county that has gone from the Republican to the Democratic party, but I do know of several talented and influential men who have left the ranks of the Democracy and joined the Republicans. I will mention a few names. The first to desert the Democratic party in our midst, was John Hall, a young, intelligent and industrious German lawyer. He left Ohio about a year ago and came to Beardstown to engage in practice. During the present part of his stay here he has been an active supporter of Douglas and a zealous member of the Democratic party in Democracy. But he has changed, "there was one Dred Scott, and he knew, whatever he might have thought, so far, at least, as he is concerned:

MOVEMENTS OF THE PEOPLE.

HENDERSON COUNTY.—A friend at Burlington, Iowa, sends us the following account of a Republican rally in Henderson county, this State:

BURLINGTON, IA., July 26, 1860.—At the meeting of the Republicans of Henderson County, held at Oquawka on the 21st, there was a large gathering of people listening to Capt. Prentiss, of Quincy, Ill., speak upon subjects of the hour, to the entire satisfaction of the crowd. After Mr. Prentiss had spoken, Hon. J. W. Grimes was introduced, and spoke over an hour and a half with the usual eloquence of Mr. Grimes's speech shouted in eloquent ebullition to our earnest friends, who had brought him to all our exponents. The best of attention was given him, and all were eager to hear him longer, but the hour of adjournment was so long as his physical powers would admit. The Burlington Wide Awake Club had a long and strong accompany that the crowd would call them off from the speaking, "Four Little Dogs," which brought out the enthusiasm to its highest pitch. The Wide Awakes formed and marched through the town, giving shouts for our candidates, and for Lincoln in particular, (which number 1st Inst.) 2,000, and probably 3,000 strong, and the Wide Awakes from other places, and with their good deportment, it was a sight to gladden the hearts of Republicans. There is quite an enthusiasm among the Germans in this place, and they are determined to hold their position until November shall set this country free from the control of lecherous Democracy. Careful estimates of the vote of this State, we think, will give twenty ten thousand majority.

WARSAW COUNTY.—A very large and enthusiastic meeting of the Republicans of Warsaw county was held at Camp Creek, in the township of last week, which was ably addressed by Peter Clark, Esq., and Dr. Moro. We are gaining ground in this county, and we expect, and they talk of carrying the county for Lincoln and Hamlin.

Grand Rally in Bureau.

Bureau did the largest meeting ever held there on the 20th inst. It was addressed by Messrs. Ford, first in German, and then in English. Both nationalities were brought to the highest pitch of enthusiasm by the eloquent words. Mr. Ford, in and at the close of his speeches, the German and Wide Awakes had splendid torch-light processions. Mr. Schurz is doing a noble work in the centre of Bureau.

CARL SCHURZ AT SPRINGFIELD.—Carl Schurz addressed the German citizens of Springfield in the State House on Monday evening, and probably but limited notice of the meeting had been given, the Hall of the House of Representatives, floor and galleries, was filled to overflowing with mostly Germans. A procession of Wide Awakes, numbering over three hundred, escorted Mr. Schurz, accompanied by Mr. Lincoln, to the State House. Mr. Schurz spoke to the Germans until a late hour, and in a manner that produced a marked effect.

THE CANVASS.—Douglas Democrats from Pekin, in this State, stated to a gentleman in Peoria, that since Mr. Schurz's speech in the former place, 1 Best or hundred Germans had left the Douglas Democracy and joined the Republican ranks.

MORE OF THE SAME SORT.—The Moline Independent says that some thirty Germans in the upper part of Moline, who, last fall, may have hitherto been Democrats, will vote for Lincoln and Hamlin this Fall. The Independent predicts that some of the Germans and Swedish vote of Rock Island county will be given for Lincoln and Hamlin.

REPUBLICANS TO DO.—Last week the editor of the Somerset wrote that the Morris Republicans of Princeton, by offering to stake $50 that Douglas would not carry Bureau county, Ill., A. Fisher, Esq., came forward with the effect that night, to arrange their, "Republicans to come up to the scratch.—Princeton Republican.

1st CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT, INDIANA.—The Republican Convention of this District met on Wednesday last, and nominated Col. Thomas H. Nelson, of Vigo county, for Congress. D. W. Chachen is the Democratic candidate, and the prospect is that Col. Nelson will lay him out.

Gen.—Henry W. Rogers, who may be regarded as the leading Democrat of Buffalo, has deserted Douglas, and has announced himself hereafter for Breckinridge and Lane.

MISSISSOURI.—The first number of the new Breckinridge paper at St. Paul has made its appearance. It is called the Star of the North, and is edited with much spirit.

THE IOWA STATE REPUBLICAN.—The Davenport announcing the defection of the State Register, from the Democratic party, has been a warm and consistent supporter of Democratic principles, and throughout the State it here is much excitement. The Register has been a supporter of Democratic principles, and throughout the State it here is much excitement. The Register has been a warm and consistent Pimples and Skin Diseases are the result of impure blood. The blood must be made healthy and clean. The skin is an index to all the impurities so important to health. Hunt's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla was an with their faces covered with pimples and blotches, when she was advantageous to remove them by the use of cosmetics and washes of various kinds. This very dangerous practice should never be practiced by persons desirous of good health. Mothers who have children afflicted with sores and eruptions, should never dry them up by external applications, for in this way they will do more harm than good, produce ill health for the child during its whole life time. There is no wonder that that be so and so prevalent, when with Hunt's Health.

JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS are prepared expressly for the cure of eruptions of the skin, such as Pimples, Blotches, Sores, &c. They purify the blood, relieve all impurities, producing a healthy, clear and healthy skin, so much admired by all people of taste and refinement.

JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS are sold by all Medicine Dealers.

Congress Water.—Much spurious mineral water has been imposed on the public as "CONGRESS WATER" by unprincipled persons or counterfeiters, who, when they have not the genuine, sell "Congress Water" which many persons suppose to be the real article of the Congress Water, although it is the product of the town in which the Spring is situated.

To protect the public from such impositions, we have sealed our Corks Branded thus:

CONGRESS
SPRING WATER.

Any one not having those words and letters on the Corks, is counterfeit; and the purchaser should prosecute the party for selling.

☞ Orders will receive prompt attention if addressed to us at Congress Spring, Saratoga, New York, or our Southern Depot of Congress Water in New York city.

THE GREATEST WONDER OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY.

Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative.

Long ago St. Louis, No., Dunwoodi; Below we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentleman in Louisville, Ky., which is but one of hundreds we have on file. Such testimonials speak for themselves, and, when coming from a reliable source, if confidence are genuine, are of truth, the Dr. is constantly receiving such testimonials from the press:

Louisville, Ky., Mayor, Jan. 20, 1865.

Professor A. Wood & Co.—Gentlemen: I feel a pleasure in adding my testimony to the highly beneficial effects of your Hair Restorative. I had been bald for the greater part of my life, and, with the exception of a few years, probably for the last twenty, my whiskers were of course disfigured. I have tried everything I could hear of to cause my hair to grow, and spent a small fortune in the vain attempt. I have spent over one hundred dollars in Europe, I am now entirely free from the gray, and am known to many every one as a young man. Any one is at liberty to use my name, if it may induce others to try your invaluable Restorative. Respectfully yours, JAMES E. JOHNSON, Mayor.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE is a perfect elixir, it is not a dye, it does not stain the skin, it is free from all injurious ingredients, it is a most delicate preparation and forbid the uncertain by which it is gone forever, it will restore the hair to its youthful color, it will prevent its falling, it will cure all diseases of the scalp, it will cure Scurf and Dandruff, it will cure Scrofula, it will cure Salt Rheum, it will cure Ulcers, it will cure Scald Head, it will cure Pimples, it will cure Eruptions, it will cure Tetter, it will cure Ringworm, it will cure Barber's Itch, it will cure Chilblains, it will cure Chapped Hands, it will cure Chapped Lips, it will cure Chapped Nipples, it will cure Chapped Breasts, it will cure Chapped Anywhere, it will cure Chapped Everywhere, it will cure Chapped Everybody, it will cure Chapped Everything, it will cure Everything, it will cure Everybody, it will cure everything everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere, it will cure everybody everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere everywhere

LATER FROM EUROPE.

A Fearful Massacre of Christians at Damascus.

St. Johns, N. F., July 27.—The steamship City of Washington, from Liverpool 13th ult., Queenstown 19th ult., passed Cape Race at 4 o'clock this morning. The news ranks of the executive Government in obtaining the Cape Race cutter, which continued, however, to cruise about the coast, but merely to carry mes. from which the following summary of European intelligence is compiled:

The British Government is said to have received intelligence of a fearful massacre of Christians at Damascus. Five hundred were killed, among whom only the French Consul. The American Consul was wounded.

The Turks are said to have acted over to Gaulbald are merchant steamers. It is confirmed that the steamer Vilcon has passed over to Gaulbald.

Rayeas 14th.—Patriots are constantly travelling the streets. The moderate party is full of apprehension concerning the slashing of an expedition of the former party on the 13th of the Strade De Toledo.

A proclamation of Garibaldi's against the Bourbon dynasty has been distributed. He says of Victor Emanuel, King of Italy, and Emanuel, who will heat as against Austria.

Rome 14th.—Since the 13th. There has been a conflict between the troops and the people in consequence of popular manifestations in favor of some refugees who had disembarked at Naples. Some prisoners were killed. The Military has been dismissed and a new Cabinet formed.

The Douglas Pennsylvania State Convention.

HARRISBURG, Pa., July 26.—The Democratic State Convention met this afternoon in series of resolutions, endorsing the platform and nominations of the recent State Convention at Reading, and the platform and resolutions of the Baltimore National Democratic Convention; denouncing the plan of the State Democratic Committee for calling a call Democratic, and in opposition to the ultimatum of the Senate Democrats, and finally declaring it to be the duty of the State Committee to call another Convention of the Democracy for the purpose of preparing an electoral ticket pledged to support the action of the Baltimore National Convention, and the regular Democratic candidates, Douglas and Johnson.

Fatal Occurrence at Syracuse—Fire at Rochester.

SYRACUSE, N. Y., July 26.—Two of our city firemen, while on their way home, returning from a horse-race south of the city yesterday, after the horse had run off, fell from the carriage at the bottom of one of the omnibuses, it was dark, and they were not discovered until the man named Michael Reilly, who was on the box, reached home and missed his mates.
